AS AG W MA 8

Subject: THE AD: PESTEMBACH IN Wolfgang (continued).

Subject has no knowledge of this matter. Count GIANO is reported to have told Hitler at the outset of the war that Italy would not be prepared to take part for two or three years. Italy was expected to enter the war at the outset. Italy's entry into the war came as a surprise and perhaps was not looked upon favorably by the German Foreign Office. Italy seems to have acted independently.

(b) Was pressure applied to bring Italy into the war in 1940?

Subject is of the opinion that pressure was not applied.

5. (a) Describe the plans made for joint operations in foreign countries between Germany and Italy. (b) What was the economic and military situation in Italy at the time of the outbreak of war?

Subject is of the opinion that pressure was not applied. Italy was not expected to enter the war at the outset but did enter it as a surprise. The Italian economy was not strong enough to support a war effort.
